The West Branch District Library will be CLOSED on May 27th for Memorial Day.

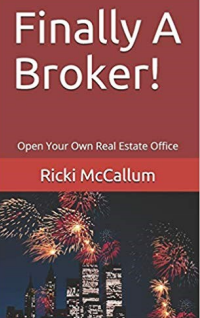

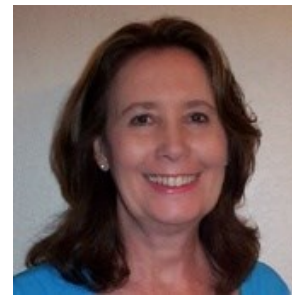

Let us honor the men and women who fought to preserve freedom. It is their valor that has given us hope for a free world.

Books for Lunch

May 21st | from 12-1pm

Guest Speaker: Ricki McCallum

Ricki McCallum recently retired from a 30+ year career as a real estate broker to begin her new career as an author. Her first book, Finally A Broker!, is an in-depth look at the process of owning and operating your own real estate office. If you have ever had interest in becoming a real estate entrepreneur, stop on by and join us for lunch!

Congratulations to the winners of our 2019 National Library Week Drawing: Bob Biel, Toni Wiles, and Kelly Booth!

We hope you enjoy your prize baskets!

A Gentleman in Moscow

By Amor Towles

"...A transporting novel about a man who is ordered to spend the rest of his life inside a luxury hotel."

Born and raised in the Boston area, Amor Towles graduated from Yale College and received an MA in English from Stanford University. Having worked as an investment professional in Manhattan for over twenty years, he now devotes himself fulltime to writing.
