Books for Lunch

December 17th | from 12-2pm

Guest Speaker: Ruth Fruehauf

Director of the Association to Rescue Kitters (ARK), Ruth Fruehauf, has worked with the wildlife of Michigan for over 18 years. Along with her work as a wildlife rehabilitator, Ruth is the author of "Rascal and the Berry Bandit". She will be discussing her book and presenting some of the ARK's ambassador kitters.

Tom Smith

Constituent Relations for
Rep. Moolenaar

December 11th, 10-11am

Tom Smith will be visiting the library to meet with constituents on behalf of Rep. Moolenaar.

Christmas Fantasy

December 21, 11am-3pm

West Branch District Library will be hosting our Christmas Fantasy event in the downstairs Community Room. Children of all ages are welcome to join us for crafts, snacks, and a movie to get in the holiday spirit.

Be watching for our Silent Auction that will end with the Holiday Art and Wine Walk on December 7th. Items will be on display for bidding starting November 25th and ending December 7th at 9pm when the Wine Walk is finished.

Left Neglected

By Lisa Genova

“...Sarah Nickerson is forced to re-evaluate what really matters...”

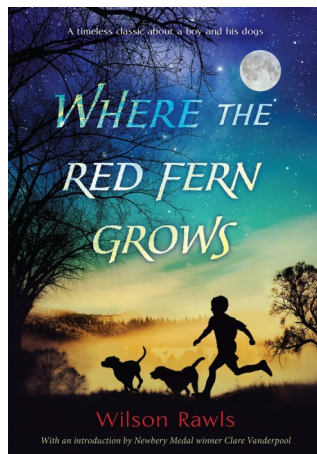

A traumatic car accident leaves the ever-busy Sarah Nickerson with “Left Neglect”, a disorder which leaves her unable to process the left side of her world. For the first time in her once-hecktic life, she must slow down and take the time to heal.
